God IS at Work in Your Life

"... And who knows whether you have not come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

--Esther 4:14

The verse above presents a profound question, doesn't it? It asks, "What is God calling you to do?"

The book of Esther is one of the most intriguing in the Bible. It never mentions the name of God. There's not even a pronoun that refers to him! Yet Esther was someone who fulfilled what God called her to do.

And what we see in Esther is the miraculous hand of God at work through her to end a holocaust being waged against the Jewish people! We also see God orchestrating circumstances so that the king of Persia would choose Esther as his wife. And in his perfect timing, Esther used her God-given influence to save her people!

From our perspective, life can sometimes seem like a random series of events, when what we are really witnessing is the invisible hand of God at work around us.

That same hand... the invisible, sovereign hand of God... is at work in your life. No matter what you're going through, God is working progressively and providentially in your life right now.

So today, ask him to help you recognize where his hand is at work, and then choose to work with him to fulfill his purpose for your life.

GOD IS WORKING PROGRESSIVELY AND PROVIDENTIALLY IN YOUR LIFE.

PRAYER REQUEST

Emory Mahan (grandfather to WCCS students Hunter Reiff and Madison Uplinger) and Jer Davis (2000 WCCS alumnus) are both very ill with cancer. Please pray for both of these men. Also, be a blessing by sending cards of encouragement and well wishes.

DiscipleMakers

Reaching the campus...
Reaching the world

Sarah Monticue, a Warren High School and Muhlenberg College graduate is currently raising support to become a full-time missionary with DisciplesMakers. While in college the Lord changed her life by bringing her to the DiscipleMakers Christian Fellowship. In fact, that's why she has decided to join DiscipleMakers staff to work as a full-time missionary to college students. Sarah came to college to pursue her dream of becoming a famous singer, but the Lord had other plans. She believes He brought her to Muhlenberg to truly win her heart for Himself and to give her a passion for seeing others come to know Him as well.

That's what she plans to spend her life doing--sharing the love of Christ with others. Once she has completed her fundraising, Sarah will move to State College to begin working as a full-time missionary. Her responsibilities may include: helping to run the student fellowship, leading outreach Bible studies, meeting with ladies one-on-one for discipleship, helping to lead worship, and working behind the scenes at the DiscipleMakers Headquarters.

Sarah is currently at 50% of the monthly support needed and is praying that the Lord would provide the rest of the necessary funds by Christmas so she can start her assignment at the beginning of the second semester. As a parent of a future college student, you can understand the importance of on-campus ministries. If you feel that God would have you support Sarah, please contact her at monticues@dm.org.
